Mom & Dadpreneurs is written to inspire the moms and dads who know there is a better way and who have yet to take that leap of faith. Each story includes courage, personal development, hardship, growth, and reward that is so worth it. These parents are not just sharing the feel good stories. You will read about addiction, lawsuits, abuse, language barriers, debt, illness, death, difficult international adoptions, messy divorces, and the victories that were fought to be earned. These stories promise to give you hope and build your belief!

See where your heart takes you, moms and dads. See if you envision yourself living a lifestyle as a full-time family, being the hero in your story, setting goals that will change you when you achieve them. You will see the hope in these stories. You will connect with the moms and dads who felt the fear and took the leap of faith anyway. Your family needs the best of you. Be present as you turn the pages and imagine what's possible for you and your family. Dream big!

Customer Reviews

I am a personal friend of Kelli Calabrese and I have watched her live this life since her kids were born. I loved every story in this book. Stories of determination, belief and hope for those who want to provide for their family in a financial way but also by being present for their kids. As a mom almost on the verge of empty nest hood, I think back on all the nights and weeks away I've had for my corporate job. What could I have done differently in hindsight? Mom & Dadpreneurs offers so many inspirational stories and ideas. I encourage everyone to ready this gem of a book!

I love reading about beautiful people living their legacies!! The time is now!! This is a "must read" if you need a little motivation to get started in the direction of your dreams!!

What a value add for anyone trying to balance work, kids, finances and just the day to day grind of life. Fulfilling! Relatable! Joyful! Empowering!

I am so excited about this!! As a work from home mom who knows the importance of putting family first... I am so excited to have this book to share with other moms who are struggling with the "how - to" of this concept!! I can't wait to read and share this book!!!

A refreshing group of stories and perspectives for creating a life that works for you and your family in many different life seasons. I was reminded of the teaching of Wayne Dyer- When you change the way you look at things - the things you look at change. The whole idea of home-based enterprises is something worthy of consideration. The compromise is rarely what you think it will be (income) and the rewards are many.

I love this book! It's filled with Mom's & Dad's who make family a priority both in words and actions. The commitment, persistence, and passion shared within these chapters is valuable to all families! I am encouraged and inspired! Thank you Kelli, Kyle, and all the co-authors who shared their wisdom in this valuable read!

I just added this to my reading list and am looking forward to reading the stories and learning how others have achieved success as Mom and Dadpreneurs. Learning from others' successes and failures is the best way to learn.

Very excited for this book! I know one of the co-writers, and based on his life and what he's doing his family, I can't wait to read other stories!
