Customer Reviews

A compendium of the most luxurious objects and gadgets available today, sumptuously illustrated and beautifully produced. A new title in teNeues' Luxury series, launched last fall with Luxury Hotels: Europe (3-8238-4553-5)

Borja de Miguel writes for European publications such as El Diario Vasco, Le Cool, and Revista Luke.

This book is inspiring. If you have ever dreamed of living in the lap of luxury; this book is sure to set the pace. I was skeptical about ordering a used copy of this book because I wanted to be the first to thumb through it's pages. Sort of like buying your first Bentley... Windsor Blue over Light Windsor Blue, Windsor Blue interior, Burr Oak trim and chrome wheels. Your first glance gives you the impression of a long quiet ride home, down a winding country road; listening to your favorite classical tune all while readying for the slow turn onto your long driveway that leads you to the graceful gates of your newly constructed Mediterranean Casa overlooking the Pacific ocean. You suddenly realize, that YOU, My friend, MUST turn the page!.... I'm not the only dreamer!

Fascinating look into the lifestyle toys of the 1 percent club- :)

I spotted this coffee table book while working in an Architects office and thought my two grown boys might enjoy perusing it's pages so I searched and found two like new copies, one on , and got them both for under $30 total...good buy!

Compiled and edited by Anja Oriol, Luxury Toys is a beautifully illustrated, 219-page, coffee-table showcase of things that only the fabulously wealthy can afford: Gulfstream private jets, Ferretti and Wally yachts, Ferrari and Bentley cars, and more. Very little text introduces these photographic galleries, but the writings that are present are in English, German, French, Spanish, and Italian. The majority of Luxury Toys is devoted entirely to vibrant, full-page color photographs and some technical specifications charts. For those who do not have millions of dollars to burn, Luxury Toys is an incredible showcase of high-priced and lavish vehicles, and the next best thing to visiting expensive auto, boat, or plane shows.

The luxury as a way of living is an exquisitely illustrated book, which explores the universe of some expensive top of the line products, whose acquirement and enjoyment use to afforded by a select minority; ferretti and Wally yachts; Aston Martin; bentley and Ferrari; Gulfstrema private jets; Cessna Citation x, Jaguar xKR, Porsche Carrera GT are just only a few examples of sumptuous playthings of the affluent shown here - a set of golden dreams objects - that many would desire but few can afford. Your imagination will fly and ignite as well as your information scope around these "toys" designed with first-rate technology, impeccable refinement and top-flight design that conform an important place into the sweet life.

I was very happy with the book. But, takes too long to ship products. It arrived several days after I expected it and therefore missed Valentines day. I just ordered some perfume through March 3, it shipped on March 7 and not scheduled to deliver until March 20. I order lots of itmes on line and is the slowest vendor .

Small boys and big boys wants the same things : TOYS. It's just the price that change depending on the age. This book is fantastic. I found also a site where there is a lot of very impressive luxury toys :

The best wish list ever! Everyone should have these toys at least for once in a lifetime.
