Beginnings (The Tacket Secret Book 3)

Synopsis

A normal life is dangerous. Jessie Tackett's off-the-grid status is about to change. Her guardian, Detective Victoria Tackett, wants Jessie to have a normal life, even though she's genetically enhanced. With a rogue general hunting the teen and a federal agent probing into her past, normal could be deadly. A normal life is vital. Detective Vick Tackett longs for Jessie to have a regular, people-filled life instead of the fear-driven, unseen existence the girl's known since the general abducted her and forced her to commit crimes. To accomplish that, she must protect Jessie from the two men who threaten her. Vick works to contain the agent asking questions about her new dependent. She also presses Jessie for details about her past, hoping to learn enough to locate the general, because she believes his arrest will free Jessie from fear. However, Jessie refuses to share that information and warns Vick she's no match for him. Goals collide as Jessie strives to keep her Golden City, New York location from leaking while Vick pushes her to be a typical teen. A normal life might be more than Jessie can handle—and it could mean danger for her and Vick.

Customer Reviews

We all would like to start over if given a chance, but Jessie and Tacket have so many secrets. Will this relationship work?’

Beginnings by Emma Carrie The Tacket Secret Series Book Three The story continues as Jessie and Vick get used to each other and build trust. Vick doesn’t understand how dangerous the man from Jessie’s past is. Vick also wants Jessie to have a more normal teenage experience and go to high school and learn to integrate with people her own age. Right. Vick has no idea of Jessie’s skills, or how much danger people will be in if Jessie’s past catches up to her. They have many differences between them, especially God. Jessie is a new Christian and Vick has no use for God or any type of religion. These are novellas that contain a continued story. The POV’s are of both Jessie and Vick.

Jessie and her new Guardian, Vic, aren’t on the same page about how Jessie should live her life, but they each try to protect the other in their own ways. Jessie is learning what it means to be a new Christian and fit in with society. She also uses her mutant powers and trained skills to prepare for a future showdown with her enemy while helping out a few people along the way. Vic resists any talk of God but has a good heart as she uses her cop contacts to do the same. I loved that we learn a lot more about each of their pasts in this installment. There are also some new characters, which mean new problems, but also a chance for friendship. I received a free copy of this book for my fair and honest review
