The Runaway Bride (The Wedding Series Book 4)

Synopsis

“Are you sure, baby?” The father of the bride-to-be notes the confusion on his daughter’s face. Just before her walk down the aisle, Judi Monroe overhears a conversation that indicates marrying Sterling Carroll might be a big mistake. Escaping her socialite wedding in Lake Forest, Illinois, she heads west, covering her tracks as she goes. In an isolated corner of Wyoming, she swerves her car to avoid hitting a horse and rider, crashing into a tree. She’s rescued by that lone rider or Ranger, as she fleetingly recalls -- a rugged rancher named Thomas Vance. Judi needed time to puzzle out the predicament she’d dodged in Illinois. But here she is, in the arms of a doubting Thomas, a man with a strong jaw, deep-green eyes and a commanding presence. When Judi dodges his personal questions, not to mention his penetrating gaze, Thomas dismisses his half-sister Becky’s diagnosis of amnesia. Judi seizes on this foot in the Diamond V door, staying on as a caretaker for Thomas’s beloved grandmother. Judi finds a family on the Diamond V, even as her masquerade as the home health aide "Helga" slowly unravels. But as she falls hard for her horse whisperer, she fears her secret will only cause him to bolt from her life. As for Thomas, he knows this impostor is lying, and it wouldn’t be the first time an outsider betrayed his family. Yet he can’t help but trust this sexy, independent, smart woman who has lassoed his heart.

Reader reviews “Loyal readers know what to expect from a Patricia McLinn book -- a strong, emotional story, a solid plot, and characters so real you miss them when the story ends. The Runaway Bride is no exception. -- Shannon Stacey, 5-star review McLinn "creates a fresh approach to the classic amnesia tale, giving Runaway Bride an appealing twist. ... Customer Reviews

This is my favorite of the four books in the series that I have read so far. The story begins when Judi takes off from her wedding in the limousine and ends up at a ranch in Wyoming. She crashes her car to avoid hitting Thomas on the horse he is training. She is initially mistaken as Helga, the home health aide who was expected. Judi continues the masquerade, while helping Becky and her brother with relationship problems. Judi and Thomas become involved physically, but both try to control their feelings. There is a small amount of sex, but this is not a steamy book. Eventually, Judi's former fiance finds her and demands the ring and all of his other gifts be returned. Judi is frightened because she has reason to believe that ex-fiance Sterling is involved in something illegal. She returns to her home and family in Lake Forest. You'll need to read the book to find out the rest of the story. I think you will like it, especially if you have read previous books in the series.

I love Patricia's books. As the story line progressed you could see Judi transform into a self assured young woman. Judi finds an honest and loving man. If Judi hadn't ran from her first wedding she would of never met Thomas and his family.

It is difficult for me to write a really comprehensive review because I don't want to give away the story. I rarely read the lengthy reviews. That said, this story was a pleasure to read, a make the reader happy story. The runaway bride finds love and a place to call home. The characters in the story are delightful.

This was the end of a series of good feel books. Was sad to come to the end. Looking forward to more books by Patricia.

I can't say enough about this series. I love this author. What a story you won't want to miss. Thomas had trust issues from the past to overcome. Judi had great wit and patience with him. Their banter back and forth was priceless. Please read it was awesome.

Loved the book

Patricia McLinn is a good/fun read. I always enjoy her books and her series.

Love it! Great believable characters, romance, humor. It was wonderful
