While the comics are made for much younger fans, the art is really great to look at and the comic feels like a tv series that has yet to be adapted by the Disney channel. For anybody that has bought the Frozen magazine for the sole reason of seeing and collecting the short comics (they really ought to be longer) this is a must have for your Frozen collection. Despite its really simple stories it is still something that many Frozen fans will enjoy. Certainly much better than anything the fan artists can offer, no Jack Frost to ruin these stories.
