Customer Reviews

World traveler Sherry Everett lived on Aruba in the '60s and has revisited there many times since then, recently going back every three years. Her 50-year knowledge of the history of the island and how it has changed has made this Dell Publishing Press book much more interesting and personal. Whether you want lavish hotel accommodations and the most expensive restaurants or need affordable venues, this book covers it all. During her stays on Aruba Everett swam, snorkeled, skied, SCUBA dove, fished and motored to and explored the small islands near Aruba. She shopped in both Oranjestad and San Nicholas, danced in the nightclubs, Carnival and other festivals, spent hours in both the Archeological and Aloe Museums, hiked up all three highest peaks and walked over miles and miles of beaches. She gives you information and insider tips on: * the best times to go * ways to save time and money * 120+ full-color photos that motivate your decisions regarding where to stay, what to see and do, where to eat * all the essential information here at your fingertips, even phone numbers, websites and much more. Everett knows Aruba inside and out.

Fantastic! I love fishing - Eating - and want to learn how to scuba dive. You can tell this person has actually been there and give you some pretty great advice and contacts. It was nice to take the guess work out of where and what I will be doing. Thanks for a great reference to Aruba! Pretty jacked about the fishing opportunities. And I am sure the kids will love the beaches you suggested.

I have been to Aruba and this little paradise is absolutely amazing! This guide will help you understand what Aruba is all about. Great read!

I've been looking at honeymoon options, and this book may have convinced us to try Aruba! It's very thorough, it contains some beautiful photographs, and best of all, it's loaded with contact information for many, many places and services you'll need. This Aruba travel guide is well worth the price just for that collection.

The book was very helpful. I especially liked knowing it was flag day when I went. I was able to see the parade with wonderful costumes.
