As Citysearch's Travel Editor, Melissa wrote about destinations from Sun Valley to San Juan, Puerto Rico. She currently lives in Los Angeles, where she is a freelance travel writer and screenwriter.

I bought this book in preparation to my southern music trip. It has a lot of interesting facts and was entertaining to read. I do much of my travel research online any more, but when I go on vacation I want to disconnect myself from computers.. so this was great for that.

Very thorough. I am taking a road trip with my Aunt from Memphis to NOLA and I cannot wait to stop at all the places I have marked. Love this book and will write a new review after I've put it to use. So far though, it is one of the better travel books I have come across.

The book was shipped quickly and the description was accurate. The book was just what I was looking for to take with me on a road trip through the Delta. It is also great to use for researching prior to a trip through the birthplace of the blues, the Mississippi Delta.

Great reading to prep yourself pre visiting Memphis to clue you up the the blues haunts to see and visit.

Has pretty much everything you would want to know regarding Memphis and the Delta Blues Trail. I'm lov'in the blues!

We use this book on vacation and found it very helpful. We found place to see and eat on our trip.

Bought it for a trip to Mississippi but found something better written by a true blues fan. This is a bit standard travel guide

As a blues music and art store owner in the heart of the Mississippi Delta (Clarksdale), I highly recommend this informative guide book to all of my customers. It covers Memphis into the Mississippi blues Delta as the title states and includes pretty much all of the information you need to have a amazingly rich, lasting Delta blues experience. The up-to-date info includes daytime stops at relevant museums and historical markers... and nighttime stops to the clubs and juke. ([...]) Buy this book today, and then come visit us in the "Land Where Blues Began." Oh... one other thing... If you plan to visit Mississippi in search of live blues, please note that most of it happens on the weekends -- though Clarksdale has it Wed-Sat (plus sometimes Tues/Sun) as well.-- Roger Stolle, Cat Head Delta Blues & Folk Art, Clarksdale, Mississippi
