Customer Reviews

Practically useless - it looks like it's been copied from a Russian Google Maps program. The notations on the map are only in Russian. Yes, it includes icons for monuments, museums and other points of interest, but there is only an icon, no names included - even in Russian. I'm going to return and just print out my own Google map with the sights that I want to see noted. I just looked back to see what info is available in the "booklet" - only the front and back covers and the legend are available to view, so it's hard to see how poorly this is done until you receive it.
