Husband-and-wife team Willie and Sandra Olivier are based in Windhoek and have an extensive knowledge of both the country and the people. They are keep backpackers, and their travels have introduced them to all aspects of this magnificent country.

We found this pretty useless. We ended up not using it at all before leaving, and not while in Namibia. If you have no maps whatsoever, it is better than nothing. But you're better off waiting until you get to Namibia and then buying a high quality map there. The best map we found is by Tracks4Africa.

Easy to read and follow maps that cover one of the easiest countries to navigate. My only true complaint is the level of detail. We used this atlas and a separate foldout country map that we picked up in Windhoek. We needed both maps to cover all areas that we wanted to visit. I don't believe we could have found a better all-in-one atlas for Namibia, and give it a big thumbs up for its ease of use and coverage.
