Jeanne Devereaux, Prima Ballerina Of Vaudeville And Broadway: “She Ran Between The Raindrops”

Synopsis

International vaudeville star and Broadway prima ballerina Jeanne Devereaux performed for millions across America and Europe from age eleven until her retirement at forty. A headliner at Radio City Music Hall, she led a large group of performers on one of the first USO Camp Shows tours to Japan. Born Jean Helman, she entered showbiz as a dancing trouper performing in palatial theaters and was one of the last vaudevillians surviving into the 2010s. In her later years living in Pasadena, California, Devereaux indulged her passion for research and writing in the Huntington Library's Rothenberg Reading Room, losing none of her intelligence and wit despite a fading memory. Drawing on personal interviews, theatrical programs, and her diary and letters, this biography illuminates the life and career of one of vaudeville's stars of stage, film, and television.

Customer Reviews

it is so wonderful that someone has written this book for posterity! Especially for most of us that did not know this amazing lady whodid it all in the theater. What a great movie it would make or at least an episode of American Experience as she seems to be one of a kind in American history. The author's style is easy to read and full of interesting tidbits. csl

The book is well written and engrossing. Can't put it down.
