Customer Reviews

This edition or format for the Book of Common Prayer is nicely produced, and would make a nice presentation gift. I bought it for its compactness and soft but not paperback cover, but not as a gift. As it happens, I returned it when I realized that the size and shape was not going to work for my purposes (to take on trips and maybe keep in car-- I'm an Episcopal priest). I was shocked to learn upon returning it that I had deducted a 50%-- yes, that's right, 1/2-- "restocking fee" from my refund-- in addition to a $3.99 charge postage. I do not recall seeing a prior indication of that restocking fee anywhere. To be fair, I might have missed it: but I have up till now trusted Church Publishing as a retailer with reasonable policies and practices. No more trust, . This fee is completely unconscionable. UPDATE Yes, I did try to look up information about restocking. No, there was no readily discoverable information. I replied to the notice about the refund and non-refund, and got the expected nobody-reads-replies-to-these-messages response, along with the customary and useless advice to look online for help. A little smaller than expected so it doesn't match up to the one we use in church.

Cure little book with gold rimmed pages. I like the smaller size also

Just what I ordered and what the reviews said, print is tiny. I don't like the paper but you get what you pay for so I was okay with that.

print is a little light perfect!

It is exactly as presented. Very good.

Good quality
