Customer Reviews

This book describes how to smoke fish, as the title expresses. It goes through preparing procedures and different ways to preserve fish. It also includes other sea meat, like oysters too. The recipes are easy to follow and some include sides such as potatoes, etc. If you are interested in ways to preserve fish then this is the right book for you!

A simple guide for preserving meats and fish without refrigeration. Recipes are included. The book is easy to read and has some illustrations to help explain a few things. The recipes are interesting and unique. This is an exciting addition to a preserving library.

Finally I found good fish recipes. They are very detailed and easy to understand. There will be no difficulty to prepare any of those, just follow the instructions.

This book give great prompts and great in pointing sees. I like how the book is composed in an exceptionally positive manner. The writer ensure that the perusers can see each subtle elements of this book. Finally I discovered great fish formulas. They are exceptionally nitty gritty and straightforward. There will be no trouble to set up any of those, simply take after the directions.

Good read on smoking. I have not gotten to the trying an of the recipes in it but they look great. If you like smoking meat I highly recommend this book plus got to his website and join the smoking meat forums. There are tons of great people there to help you.
