George Weigel is a garden writer, garden designer, garden speaker, Pennsylvania Certified Horticulturist, and--as his balding, plant-killing brother likes to put it--a "Certified Gardening Wacko." In central Pennsylvania, George is best known for his Over the Garden Fence columns that have appeared weekly in the Patriot-News, Harrisburg's newspaper, since 1993. The Garden Writers Association named George's column as one of America's five best garden columns in 2008. His articles have also appeared in such magazines as Horticulture, People, Places and Plants, Green Scene, Pennsylvania Gardener, and Central PA Magazine. When he's not writing, George spends his time operating his own garden-design and consulting business for DIYers, leads garden-themed tours, gives frequent lectures, and is a member of the Pennsylvania Horticulture Society's Gold Medal Plant Award committee. George is the author of Cool Springs Press' Pennsylvania Getting Started Garden Guide (2014).

One of THE BEST gardening books I've purchased. Fantastic. I wish I'd owned this years ago.

good for a novice homeowner

Great book for the novice or average gardener...LOVE the advice on plantings, pruning, and tips for each month. Worth the purchase price.

This book was recommended to me by a Master Gardener, and I love it. It's easy to use as it's cataloged by each month. I refer to the book often!

A book that digs into what to do month to month is what I look for when I take up such a hobby.

We just moved here, so this is a good reference book as we put together our garden in Philly.

I bought this book for a friend. She is loving it!!!!

A great book for a novice in the yard. Great ideas.
