Nature Boy : The Career Of Buddy Landel

Synopsis

â œYou know I've got dozens of friends and the fun never ends as long as I'm buying. When the money ran out, that's when the people left me. God forgave me. My family forgave me. And everybody in Knoxville knows that Buddy Landel is a home cooking, hometown boy. I love Knoxville, Tennessee and I'm proud of it.â • - Buddy Landel Buddy Landel was considered one of the biggest 'what ifs' in the world of professional wrestling before he died tragically after a car accident in 2015. In the mid-1980s, Landel seemed to be on the fast track to fame in becoming the heir apparent to "Nature Boy" Ric Flair's top dog status in the NWA promotion. But Landel couldn't steer clear of the fast life and would ultimately fade into obscurity for several years until a career resurrection in Jim Cornette's Smoky Mountain Wrestling. Finally defeating his demons, he would turn his life around and become one of the feel good stories of wrestling before dying tragically after a car accident.

Customer Reviews

Gives a good quick rundown of Buddy's career, not a full blown biography but a damn fine read. RIP

Buddy
