Customer Reviews

It wasn't as useful to me for everyday cooking. It had great tips for someone pre-planning and pre-cooking for a large event (such as the wedding she cooked for) except you would have to have an extreme amount of fridge and freezer space available.

For those who are planning a big party, family get together or other large group function, there are some interesting and not too complex recipes. The author seems to have many such occasions and has developed time and food saving steps.

I enjoyed reading the author's personal stories interspersed with the recipes. While most are not something I would make, it did give me ideas on what to do for my own family. I was really intrigued with the idea of cooking for so many.

The book gave some really good ideas for planning ahead although it is difficult to imagine cooking that 200, the recipes look very good.

Was extremely disappointed - this is not a good cookbook - it's recipes would not even satisfy a non-cook - they are so basic and not at all creative

I've read the other reviews and I can't agree more! Beautiful piece of art. Please tell me there are more books to come. Great read. Excellent recipes. 10 out of 10. Just WONDERFUL

A beginning point for those wanting to entertain. Seemed very Midwestern in recipes. Not fresh recipes. Used canned soups, canned pie fillings, etc.

Great quality. Quick Service!
