Sharon Kramis was a student and protégé of James Beard and coauthor of Northwest Bounty. Her daughter Julie Kramis Hearne was a chef at the Herbfarm for many years and has owned a chain of panini shops. Both live in Seattle.

This is an excellent cookbook. The best feature is the short one page recipes. The types of recipes are unusual and sometimes exotic but also many old familiar stew recipes are included. I have tried 2 and both were easy and good tasting. These recipes are for a Dutch oven so nothing is short order or fast but the results of slow cooking are delicious. The book itself is colorfully illustrated and easy to manage while chopping ingredients.

Love this cookbook. Lots of pictures, recipes are not complicated and make pulling out the dutch oven and throwing a meal together quick and easy!

My daughter-in-law finally got her wish, when she opened this Christmas gift. She cooked a delicious chicken recipe (also got her the cookbook) for my birthday dinner, and it took only a little over an hour to cook. I think it was more moist and tastier than slow-cooked chicken.

This is one of the best recipe books I have found for cast iron cooking.. The recipes are precise and easy to understand and follow and the variety of meals is great.

So far the recipes I have tried are all good. My only objection is that it would be quicker to find the recipe I want if at the beginning of each chapter all the recipes were listed with page numbers. To find the recipe you have to go to the index and look under the general heading rather than the actual name of the recipe. The index, however, is good, so not a real problem.

A perfect cookbook for my Dutch ovens. I simply love this book. Easy to follow instructions. Received book superfast and in perfect condition.If you own Dutch cookware like I do this book is an absolute necessity why leave your beautiful expensive cookery in the closet. Set them free and start cooking.

Great cookbook, has interesting selection of recipes, everything has turned out great so far. I definitely recommend to anyone with a Dutch oven

It's just okay but I was hoping for more one pot easy recipes! I purchased this book because of a review where this one was graded better than the newer one .Too many ingredience for my taste! I will still try some of the recipes but will probably google most! So happy I got it for only $5
