OK! let me just tell you what this book did for me in the first 28 days of me working on my credit
Sent first round of dispute letters October 10th 2014 score was a 495
Easy to follow steps and I hate reading.... HATE IT!!
November 6th Checked my credit score 578
November 19th Checked my credit score 613
In 41 days I gained 113 points to my credit score.....113 points....best 15$ I ever spent,
BTW I applied for my first credit card in 7 years and got approved for 700$!! what what!! gangsta

GANGSTA!! don't know what happens if you do all 6 dispute letters probably get elected president or something Go BEN CARSON 2016!!, but I will update as I go along =)Oh yea I started off with 21 items on my collection report and had 16 items removed with the first round of dispute letters, Leaving me with a grand total of 5 items left to work on. Money invested so far is about 50$ and that was mainly to pay for the certified mail with return receipt which is about 5 bucks a letter if you want to keep the credit bureaus and collections agencies from trying to pull the "OI didn't receive your letter rig a maroo"Anyways My next round of dispute letters were sent out on the 15th of November will update what happens probably around December 10th or so!!Just started reading dave ramseys THE TOTAL MONEY MAKEOVER so far so good..... Im starting to get the hang of this reading thing again HEHE..... Anyways enough with the rambling ill check back in when I get a response from the credit bureaus and collection agencies GOOD LUCK ON THAT CREDIT REPAIR!!Alright Guys im back with an update!!the last time i wrote this review i had 5 items in collections after the first round of dispute letters, just finished my 2nd round of dispute letters and received my updated credit score WHICH IS A 654!! A 654!! A FREAKING 654 LOL I NOW HAVE A TOTAL OF 1 ITEM in collections, i had 5 my last update. this book was the best investment i have ever made, i just applied for my first FHA home loan with me and my wife wish me LUCK!!! will update if i remove that last negative item, sending 3rd round of dispute letters. You have no excuse to not buy this book.GOOD LUCK GUYS and GALS!!01/22/2015 UPDATE!Credit score is a 671, Did not get approved for the FHA home loan =(, the reason behind that is I do not have enough revolving lines of credit, basically I need more credit cards, First step to fixing that from the advice of my lender was to get myself added onto a relative's credit card who has excellent payment history and a large credit line, My dad was kind enough to add me to his American express card he has had for 20 years which has a 20k credit limit WOOT!! even though i have no access to use the card the credit bureaus still treat it as your own credit. I will also be applying for 2 secured credit cards tomorrow one with capitol one and the other I have not decided yet. Anyways I will continue to update as I progress through this credit repair process, i will say this again you have no reason to not buy this book!!

He genuinely removes the fear from credit improvement.

I own all editions of Mr. Marks books and purchased them from here on a few years ago. Mr. Mark has various other works as well, he's a tech genius and owns a credit repair software company (I use his credit repair business software currently for my company and it is robust). He is a terrific person and all of his works are invaluable and you will not want to be without them. Testimonial: Mr. Mark's books were one of two tools which incidentally came to me and was a deciding factor in my decision to stay in the credit restoration business (I had 90% give it up). I have a criminal justice educational background and minor studies in Pre-law, then a twist in life happened and I went to work as a supervisor for MS Dept. of Corrections for little over 14 years. In late 2014, I re-enter college to finish my Doctorate, while doing that I obtained my Paralegals certification. I say that to say this, Mr. Mark's books, character, and persona from watching him on youtube as far back; as approximately 2013 made me rethink my passion and love for credit and how I have successfully helping so many people in my community to learn to love and take care of their credit profiles as well. I thank you dearly and he's my rockstar mentor. Please support his great financial movement and in return help yourself with exclusive knowledge. So, buy and read this book, you will be amazed. Thanks for listening and be ultimately blessed with prosperity & knowledge!

excellent

The book explains everything needed to help u repair it credit, in easy to understand format. Worth every cent! Enjoy

Not worth the price repeat of info you can get from credit bureau for free.it doesn't give you anything concrete to help improve your credit score.same as all the other books and programs write letters and ask that items be deleted to improve score. This is hardly news.

Great book for anyone looking to self-repair their own credit and or starting their own credit repair business. Mark tells it like it is and gives you the blueprint for success. I've read this book cover to cover 2x now and have tabbed specific pages to continue referencing as I begin building my credit repair business. Definitely worth the investment, Mark demonstrates his passion for the industry and educating you to succeed! A++

Great book! Mark is incredibly knowledgeable about credit repair and restoration. This book is very educational for those wanting to repair their own credit as well as those in the credit repair business. Definitely a must have!
