SEA BOUND (A Quilting Cozy Book 3)

Synopsis

SEA BOUND: A Quilting Cozy (Book 3) continues the escapades of Sarah Miller and her cohorts living in Cunningham Village, a retirement community in the mid-west. Sarah and her friends escape to the islands on a quilting cruise, which offers creative quilting classes and loads of fun at sea. Of course, there is a mystery to be solved, a touch of romance on the beach, a gambling debt gone bad, and a missing passenger, presumed dead. Sarah and Charles are determined to unravel the mysteries while Sophie, in her feisty unconventional way, continues to offer comic relief. This sequel to TIE DIED and RUNNING STITCHES, the first two books in the Quilting Cozy series, continues to offer light mystery, loveable characters, and lots of quilting. Enjoy!

Customer Reviews

This is the third book in a quilting cozy mystery series by Carol Dean Jones and I hope # 4 is in the works. I really enjoy the easy style that Ms. Jones uses to convey her story telling. It's light reading @ it's best as far as I'm concerned because when I finish each book, I'm already looking forward to learning more about the residents/family/friends of her retirement community. It sounds like a place anyone would like to settle into when facing that period of one's journey in life. With her faithful four-legged companion Barney, her best friend Sophie & of course her love interest & soulmate, Charles, there's never a dull moment in her busy life. It's good to know this sixty something senior is not sitting around idly watching time pass her by! There's always a mystery to solve just around the corner & of course quilting to be done in her "spare" time!

A beautiful setting with strong characters. The descriptions of the cruise ship and the ports along the way were great....but the best descriptions were of the wonderful quilt projects that were being made while on this quilting cruise. I've often thought of going on a cruise, and now that I'm enjoying quilting, a quilting cruise would be a great way to enjoy both a cruise and the quilting classes. This was theist best mystery of the three books Ms. Dean has written. I sincerely hope this is not the last we see of Sarah, Charles, and Sophie. I thoroughly enjoyed this third book. Hope you do also.

I have enjoyed "getting. to know" the characters of Ms Jones' series. Sarah, a woman of about my age who faces challenges of her age group including family stresses. Charles, Sarah's close male friend. And Sophie, the robust best friend to Sarah, who provides comic relief with her sarcastic nature. And last, but certainly not least, Sarah's canine buddy, Barney, who, despite his unruly coat and scruffy look, is loved by everyone except Sophie who pretends indifference to the pooch. You really need to start with book #1, "Tie Died", book #2, "Running Stitches" and the 3rd in the series, "Sea Bound". ENJOY!

Wanted a "light read". Good storyline. Kept me interested until the end. Never totally figured out the ending. It pleasantly surprised me. Am enjoying this series.

I enjoyed the fun and inspiring book about two of my favorite interests quilting and reading mysteries. The characters were warm and interesting. Their unique personalities and characterizations made them reflective of people we all know . The books voice felt comfortable and at the same time as the story line progressed rose to the twist and turns of the story. I look forward to the continued relationship between grace and Charles and other characters as well

I like these stories. They truly are cozies. The mystery is OK, keeps you involved. but it's the people and the settings that pull you in. I find myself really liking these people and wish I knew them. I rated it a 4 because it's not "War and Peace". But it is a relaxing, interesting summer read. I recommend it. It's a break from work, children and household chores which will give your spirit a break.

Enjoyed reading it and author did Aaron good job of keeping you wondering until the end. Would purchase more books by this author

I really enjoyed reading the continuing adventures of Sarah, Charles, and Sophie, albeit this time at sea on a cruise ship. The book is a delightful read and filled with suspense as the journey continues. Reading Carol Dean Jones' books is comparable to listening to easy listening music--delightful in all ways. Judy S.
