Customer Reviews

I have enjoyed Jen and her husband's book, because they give you the information in a clear concise read. None of the books have disappointed, and I highly recommend any book that they have written. As I am looking to relocate to Costa Rica, I wanted to do my research. I was so happy to find their books, because they gave me great information. Now to this book on Grecia. Since this is in the top 3 of the villages I am interested in, I was wishing for a book that provided information on Grecia and where to find things, information on banks, restaurants and bus service. This book met that wish, but has so much more. A brief Spanish lesson was included on key words for ordering and on shopping. I am practicing now! There is information on real estate agents who are trustworthy, drivers, B&B, hostels, hotels, medical, banks, pharmacies and lots of other key information. Thank you for writing such an informative book. I can't wait to visit.!

Jen's guide is perfect for my kind of travel. I tend to stay away from the big cities, choosing small, outlying towns instead, and going "deep", rather than wide. I settle in for a few weeks, and a guide like Grecia, Costa Rica, with its detailed maps, links, and personal recommendations is just the ticket for quick acclimation. I think the guide would also be excellent for a new resident of Grecia. Even better than Welcome Wagon (although it would be lovely if it the book came with a coupon for some of Jen's Dutch oven bread!)

Headed to Grecia in December, this little book is packed and I mean packed with useful information. We found it just in time for our trip. We will better plan our itinerary as a result of the interactive capability of the book.

A short, quick read but packed with real practical advice. A must read for those considering relocating to Costa Rica either short term or for retirement.

Jen Beck Seymour does it again in her latest installment of books on Costa Rica. The book yet again touches on everything from transportation to food to enjoying the beautiful sights of Grecia. Easy to read, easy to follow and easy to enjoy Jen's view of her beloved Grecia. Highly recommended for anyone traveling to Costa Rica.

Grecia, Costa Rica, is a great little town and Jen has written some much needed information for newcomers or those interested in visiting! This guide is packed full of useful tips from where to eat, shop and even meet other expats, if that is what you want to do. The information is very detailed so even if you are new to Grecia you would be comfortable. I am glad she decided to write this guide and I will definitely pass it on to anyone that I know who is going to Costa Rica and especially to Grecia!

Jen put real world and useful knowledge about this area in an easy-to-read book. This is a must have book if you are going to Grecia!

This is a definite guide for everyone visiting Costa Rica, what a sweet town to check out, keep up the good work Jen!
