Clear The Path: A Rhyme Book On Manners For Little Muslims

Synopsis

An integral part of every Muslim household and Islamic school classroom is teaching children proper adab (etiquette). Clear the Path: A Rhyme Book on Manners for Little Muslims is a fun and simple collection of rhymes with colorful and relatable illustrations to help parents and educators teach their children and students the basics of Islamic etiquette in private and public spaces. Inspired by nearly forty sound hadiths (narrations), all of which are included in the reference section, this book not only provides practical lessons in Islamic etiquette, but also serves as a valuable resource of essential hadiths every Muslim should know.

Hosai Mojaddidi is a former private school teacher and current homeschooling mom, writer/editor, activist, mental health advocate, and public speaker. She is the co-Founder of MH4M (www.mentalhealth4muslims.com), a content driven site that provides resources and articles on mental health related topics tailored for the Muslim community. She is passionate about teaching children Qur'an, Islamic studies, and the importance of refinement and etiquette based on the teachings and perfect life example of the best of mankind, the Prophet Muhammad ﷺ. She resides in California with her family and offers monthly spiritual wellness classes for women, educational workshops for students and teachers, and regular talks at mosques and Islamic organizations locally and nationally on a variety of subjects ranging from spiritual development, marriage/family, education, mental health in Islam, women's issues, interfaith topics, seerah, etc. In her spare time, she enjoys reading, writing, and blogging via social media (Facebook and Twitter), doing arts and crafts, visiting gourmet coffee shops, and exploring the countless beautiful beaches and parks throughout California. Teresa Abboud is a Georgia-based illustrator and a 2D animator. She graduated from the Académie Libanaise des Beaux Arts. She grew up in Lebanon in an artistic environment, in an atmosphere of integrity and disorder, war and liberty. Teresa's art reflects her inner feelings. Her esthetic choices come directly from this atmosphere that marked her childhood. Teresa wants to tell stories, share feelings, express ideas, and transmit emotions through her art. www.teressala.blogspot.com

This book is a really wonderful, fun way to teach kids (of any culture or tradition) basic good manners and habits. Also, the sayings of the Prophet Muhammad listed after the rhymes are a great way for anyone (young or old) to get to know some of the values taught by the Final Messenger of God, peace be upon him. Much of the teachings of this book are common values worldwide. I highly recommend this book!

Mashallah such a great book! Bought it for my niece and can't wait to sing it to her. As a previous day care teacher i have read a lot of children's books but this one really stands out because it rhymes so nicely and teaches kids great manners...once you read/sing it you can't get it out of your head.

I just got this as an Eid gift for my kids. What a wonderful treat! My kids love the book and want to read it everyday since they got it. I was so impressed with how each line was inspired by teachings of Islam. It is a great way to teach children manners of our great religion. Thank you to this brilliant author for this creative book!

Perfect book for the young curious Muslim that ties in basic everyday manners to the teachings of our prophet (PBUH). Easy to read and follow with simple illustrations. Perfect book that launched my 6 and 7 year old further curiosity about Islam not only as a religion but as a guide to everyday life.

This book was very well written and so fun for my children. They are reciting the verses and singing them around the house. It's a must have for every Muslim's library!

This is such a wonderful book MashaAllah! My son and I enjoy reading it nightly. I highly recommend it!

This book is a fun way to teach kids basic manners according to Prophetic teachings. Kids will enjoy the rhymes and cartoons too! Much appreciation to the author for making learning fun!
