John E. 'Black Dragon' Bunch II is the National President of the Mighty Black Sabbath Motorcycle Club Nation where he has spent the last 24 years and is considered a 'lifer.' Dragon served out his prospectship at the Mother Chapter at 4280 Market Street San Diego, California where he crossed over and received his full patch. In 2000, Black Dragon advised writer/filmmaker Reggie 'Rock' Bythewood who co-wrote and directed the DreamWorks movie Biker Boyz. Black Dragon was a Technical Adviser on the film. Biker Boyz has been widely credited with re-birthing the Black Biker MC movement in the US. In 2009, Black Dragon brought the Black Sabbath MC east of the Mississippi to Atlanta as President. He was then assigned the task of expanding the Black Sabbath MC's chapters by then National President Paul 'Pep' Perry who also appointed him National Enforcer. Black Dragon suffered his first major setback in an Atlanta coupe that cost him the Presidency in December 2010. In February 2010, Dragon was unanimously elected National President of the Mighty Black Sabbath Motorcycle Club Nation. By 2012 Dragon successfully expanded the MC's reach nationwide with chapters that spanned from the West to the East coasts. During the past 24 years Dragon has published several motorcycle magazines including: Urban Biker Cycle News, Black Iron Motorcycle Magazine, Black Sabbath MC News Magazine, www.BlackSabbathMagazine.com and a phone app named Black Sabbath Motorcycle Club. Under Bunch Publications, John E. Bunch II also published Single Mom Parenting Magazine 2000, Caribbean Punch Magazine 2002, 'BE' Women's Health and Fitness Magazine 2003 and the political commentary blog www.IBeg2Differ.com 2008. Today Black Dragon serves the Mighty Black Sabbath Motorcycle Club Nation from his headquarters in Atlanta. He is the second full patched brother to serve the Mighty Black Sabbath MC Nation as First Rider. Good Luck Prospect.....///

It's okay but not great. Some bits of useful info but if you are really prospecting an MC I don't think this will help much. I think a better title would be "Hang-Around's Bible". It is really an overview for those with zero knowledge.

Mr. Bunch does a fanatic job of breaking down the whole process in an easy to follow format. His decades of experience on the bike set coupled with his own personal story that he weaves in and out of the guide really brings everything together. I feel much more confident in pursuing a MC career after reading this book. Thank you Black Dragon and much respect to you and your Mighty Black Sabbath Nation!

Great read. I've been in the hangaround phase for several months now, wanted to study/research all aspects of prospecting before going forward. This book gave great insight as to what would be expected and basic MC protocol.

Good information for all bikers / Great read. The Prospect's Bible gave me some overall Great insight into the biker's world. I truly believe that all newbie bikers should read this book. Thank you for sharing, Mr. John E. Bunch

A lot of good information is presented for those unfamiliar with the MC world. I found the most of the anecdotal stories to be very useful and insightful. There was some redundancy in the material presented, however, I took that as reinforcement to the importance of that respective subject.

Well written....very clear ...it's a great read...

Excellent book for "The New Prospect". Easy to read and understand. Well worth it if you are heading down "That Path" to Patch Holder. Semper Fi!!! LFFL
