Amazing for parents who care

Excellent book for young kids. I recommend Everyone should have this book in the home.

Great book

Originally upon purchasing this book I thought it would be like most other books based on Prophet Muhammad SAW. However, I have to say I was wrong, it is written very well, explains Prophet Muhammad SAW background and upbringing in such a manner that children even below 5 would be able to understand. I was pleasantly surprised to find out that there is a special EID chapter and discussion questions for kids and families. I hope that this author intends to write more books! On an even more personal note, I have learned more about the angel Gabriel and how he was initially introduced to Prophet Muhammad SAW. Must buy for parents!!!

I started reading this book out loud to my 8 & 6 year old tonight. It's so well written, the first question from my kids was: is this a true story? It's written in a way that is easy for them to understand. I can tell the children were engaged in the book from the questions that followed - they were factual...what was prophet Mohammad's grandfather's name? Are they talking about Abraham Lincoln? (No a prophet) what is a prophet? - all these answers I have been over with my kids before, it seems this format of story telling is sticking in their heads, they are asking the right questions to make me believe they are comprehending what they are hearing. I noticed that this is the first book in a series called Ramadan classics - I'm looking forward to future books and hope there are new short stories to read every year.

I ordered this book for my 7 year old and it is fantastic! Unfortunately there are hardly any books on Islam for kids. What's more, what I particularly love about this book is how it is broken down into very short chapters, making it easy to digest, yet there are so many chapters, that kids get to learn many beautiful things about the life of the Prophet after completing the whole book. Having questions for each chapter is an added bonus and fun for kids to do. A must have book for ages 6-16. Also a refreshing read for adults.

Very well written. It was perfect for my 10 yo and I read it to my 7yo every night. There are very few Islamic books so well written for children. Awaiting the author's next book.

I bought a copy, and the stories of the prophets is better. The stories in here are just a copy of Ibn Kathir.
