Reading the book now, and enjoying it with my 13 year old grandson

Great adventure

My 11 year old loved the first four books in this series and couldn't wait to get this one. He was disappointed with book 5, but gave this one a try anyway. Still disappointed.

As fast paced as ever, with just the right mix of tense anticipation, lightening action and quick-witted humor. The only drawback to this book was the howls of protest from my 10, 8, and 5 year old each time I would have to tell them it was time for bed and I wasn't going to read the next chapter:)

We love this series. Please keep writing more. Can't wait to read the next one. Fast paced and enthralling. Great

The title says it all. really good. One thing i love about it is that characters that you think they might not appear again after the battle at osaka appears in this book. and there are more awesome characters, although one of them died. A must read especially the fans of young samurai.

This storyline was not very original, there was an old movie named "7 Samurai" and it is obvious that story was used to write this book.

what a GREAT series for boys AND girls, 10-50. I bought these for my teen, and got addicted and read the whole series. lots of fun.
