Synopsis

THE EXPANSIVE COMMENTARY COLLECTION is a new release of much loved and oft used commentaries. Each commentary is beautifully formatted with every verse given an uncluttered presentation for ease of reference and use. We have taken great care to provide you with each individual commentary as it was intended and written by the original author. Our commentaries are equipped with the very best active tables of contents that drill down from the main contents page to the individual Bible book, to the author, to the Bible book chapter and then to the very verse you are looking to study. These tables of contents have been designed for ease of use and to get you to the exact verse you are looking at. In this volume we give you Charles H. Spurgeon commentary on Paul's Epistle to the Romans (Chapters 1 to 10, 12 and 15). The Prince of Preachers, Charles H. Spurgeon (19th June 1834 – 31 January 1892) was not only a wonderful orator but also magnificent with his pen. The sermons he preached touched the lives of thousands. His writings still continue to reach those who read them to this very day. Reading Spurgeon today may be secondary to the impossibility of hearing him but there is no doubt that his words still carry the weight of Biblical truth. Spurgeon is best remembered as the pastor the Metropolitan Tabernacle, London, England. There he enjoyed many years of fruitful ministry, leading people to Christ and pastoring the ever growing congregation of the Church.

Customer Reviews

One can glean a lot of wisdom from the great man's commentaries on Romans, a book that is notoriously hard to digest fully. Reading it does require some patience but the rewards are worth the effort in that he offers a feast of food for thought and contemplation.

Very sound doctrine, which is to be expected from Charles Spurgeon. He is one my favorite dead, Godly men that I refer to often.
