Synopsis

Each colorful page of this delightful board book helps preschoolers discover ways they can share. BOZ and his friends Gracie and Drew demonstrate how. BOZ is the new Barney, but not annoying. He teaches colors, shapes, manners, and the golden rule to preschoolers. Since the characters are twins, a boy and a girl, its perfect for both genders...very sweet and always family friendly.

This is a great book for toddlers and preschoolers. You just can't go wrong with Boz. My son, 2 1/2, loves Boz videos and this book really has helped us as we try to teach the idea of what sharing is. I greatly recommend the fun pictures and the story, short and sweet, but great for their short attention spans as well.

Awesome story and characters who model good & Christian behavior!
