Salah StÃ©tiÃ©, born in 1929 in Beirut, is one of the major poets of our time. His poetry, written originally in French and subsequently translated into many other languages, attracts the reader's attention with its mixture of almost mythical power contrasted with everyday simplicity. With an imaginative creativity the poet manages to infuse his poetry with a variety of emotions, ranging from love through to sadness. In 1995 Salah StÃ©tiÃ© won the Grand Prix de la Francophonie de l'Academie FranÃ§aise.

Nice book, advertised as "as new", which it was not with cover partly torn. As I purchased it to give as a present the state of the book was a disappointment
