My American Angel (Shower & Shelter Artist Collective Book 6)

Synopsis

My American Angel is the sixth and final installment of the Shower & Shelter Artist Collective series. It can also be read as a standalone. Theo Duval was born and raised in MontrÃf©al. He was only ten-years-old when he met a young American girl named Caroline at a public library near his home. Though there were some serious language barriers, the two of them quickly felt the first sparks of young love. Caroline's visit to MontrÃf©al was brief, and Theo was soon left with only the vivid memories of his first crush. They had haunted him for years, and he always felt like she was the one who got away.Caroline had a slightly different take on their encounter. In her mind, she clearly told Theo that if neither of them were married by the time they turned thirty, they'd reunite and ride off into the sunset. It never occurred to her that Theo might have agreed to her plan without understanding a single word of what she said. If you guessed that these two ultimately found each other again and got their happily ever after, then you'd be right. But the real fun is in finding out how, after twenty years of separation, it all came to pass.

Theo Duval and Caroline Harrison met as children when Caroline  $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A}$   $\hat{a} \neg \tilde{A}$   $\hat{a}_{,,\phi}$ s family was visiting TheoÃf¢Ã ⠬à â,,¢s hometown in Canada. Even as young as they were, the two had an unusual connection and affection for one another resulting in their first taste of young love. However, when Caroline  $\hat{A}f\hat{A}\phi\hat{A}\hat{a}$ ,  $\hat{A}\hat{a}_{,,\phi}$  family left town to return home. Theo and Caroline went their separate ways. Fast forward 20 years and Caroline still has fond memories of a pact the two made as children- that if they weren  $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A}$   $\hat{a} \neg \tilde{A}$   $\hat{a}_{\mu}\phi$ t married to other people by the time they were 30, they would meet back up and marry each other. On a whim, Caroline tries to track Theo down and astonishingly, she is successful! The two reconnect and find that their childlike fondness of one another not only still remains, but has blossomed into something much deeper as adults. After a whirlwind weekend visit with Caroline  $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A}\hat{a} - \tilde{A}\hat{a}$ .  $\phi s$  family, the two decide to begin dating only to have the weekend end in a tragic car wreck where Caroline is seriously injured. Fourteen months later when Caroline re-emerges from her coma and also struggles with memory loss, she has to decide if she wants to contact Theo again to restart their relationship or leave him be so he can go on with his life without her. My American Angel was one of my favorite stories in this series! Caroline and Theo $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A}$   $\hat{a} \neg \tilde{A}$   $\hat{a}_{,,\phi}\phi$ s early relationship was adorable, as was their first interaction with each other when reconnecting for the first time as adults in the library! I sighed and smiled at the swell of emotion each experienced and their instant connection with each other when they reunite as adults. The adult Theo is so tender and smitten with Caroline! How romantic that he speaks to her in French and recalls specific details of their childhood encounters in the library! I anxiously wanted to read ahead to see what happened after the accident!  $I\tilde{A}f\hat{A}c\tilde{A}$   $\hat{a} \neg \tilde{A}$   $\hat{a}..cll$  just say I was very pleased!  $\hat{A}f\hat{A}c\hat{A}\hat{a} - \hat{A}\hat{a}$  This has been a very enjoyable series overall to read. Three of the stories are insanely romantic! The other three are mediocre in my opinion. Even though there may have been some impracticality in some of the romance scenarios, the fairy-talesque romantic moments in JFK to Dublin, So Much for Boundaries, and My American Angel won me over and kept me turning pages! There were a few things in this series, however, that perplexed me. I first started reading this series by St. James because she is described in her biography on as writing  $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A}$  â  $\neg\tilde{A}$  Å"Christian and inspirational $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A}$  â  $\neg\tilde{A}$  Å• romances. All six books contained very little in them that would be considered Christian or inspirationally-themed. Yes, there were nods to prayer and mentions of God, but it didn $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A}$   $\hat{a} \neg \tilde{A} \hat{a}_{\mu}\phi$ t really seem like any of the characters were making decisions based on their faith. I think Caroline  $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A}$   $\hat{a} - \tilde{A}$   $\hat{a}_{,,\phi}cs$  description of Theo $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A}$   $\hat{a} - \tilde{A} \hat{a}_{,,\phi}\phi$  philosophy in life sums up how the other characters viewed Christianity- $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}c\tilde{A}$  â  $\neg \tilde{A}$  Å"he lived his life by certain Christian principals, not necessarily because he was a religious person, but because he had good results in life simply by abiding by them. $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A} \ a \neg \tilde{A} \ A^{\bullet}$ I would not label these books as  $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A} \ a \neg \tilde{A} \ A^{\bullet}$ Christian romance $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A} \ a \neg \tilde{A} \ A^{\bullet}$ ; that being said, overall they were mostly very good, clean romance stories featuring moral characters, but were not necessarily  $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A} \ a \neg \tilde{A} \ A^{\bullet}$ Christian $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A} \ a \neg \tilde{A} \ A^{\bullet}$  in nature. The only other complaint I want to voice is that all six books needed to be edited better. There were multiple misspellings (like in the quote above- should be  $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A} \ a \neg \tilde{A} \ A^{\bullet}$ principles $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A} \ a \neg \tilde{A} \ A^{\bullet}$ , not  $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A} \ a \neg \tilde{A} \ A^{\bullet}$ principals $\tilde{A}f\hat{A}\phi\tilde{A} \ a \neg \tilde{A} \ A^{\bullet}$ ), punctuation errors, and grammatical mistakes. Readers notice these things, and they become quite distracting. My hope is in future novels that St. James will take the time to hire a professional editor to present a more polished novel to her readers. This review contains my own thoughts and opinions. I have not been compensated in any way by the publisher or the author for my review.

Theo Duvall lived in Canada and he met Caroline Harrison while they were on vacation. They were 10 years old and spent many days together. They never forgot each other and even shared a kiss. I believe you saved the best for last Brooke St.James. I enjoyed all.six books but this one was my favorite. I enjoyed this series and all the others I have read. I hated to see it end. Looking forward to your next series. I usually rent most books but I buy yours. They are full of lovingbcharacters without any kind of racy scenes.

Oh My! I picked up this series in book 4 and read books 4, 5 and 6. Each of these books can be read as stand alone books. Out of the three that i read, this was my absolute favorite. OH MY Word. The two main characters Theo and Caroline are incredible. This was one of those books you can't put down. The way they met, to the in person meeting, to the very end was just so wow worthy. This book has it all...sweetness, excitement, drama, closure. Closure for the couple and also for characters from the other books. I'm telling you if you don't read any of the other books in this series, please read this one. You will not be disappointed.

I always wondered what Theo's story was. I was so excited to finally get to read more about him. His story is so interesting. It has some unexpected twists and turns but I am so glad he gets his happily ever after!

This series has been wonderful to read. Your first relationship should be with God. I like how this series portrays that, along with wonderful love stories. After all GOD IS LOVE!

Loved it so happy it was Theo's time. I knew it would be special and it warmed my heart would love to revisit them in a few years

I have enjoyed all of the Shower & Shelter series. The characters are people you want to know; their experiences have given them strength and made them better; the friendships formed are lasting. "My American Angel" is a story of selflessness, love, and miracles that brought us to a totally happy ending. Well done!!

I really liked the series, each with different well developed characters and interesting sub plots with a unifying theme of Shower & Shelter - a place for up and coming artists to hone their craft in New York City.
