This is the best reference book I could find while planning a trip to Cincinnati. It covers a lot.

This is thorough, but without maps and pictures it was extremely disappointing. It is no Fodor's or Lonely Planet. I cannot recommend.

THIS IS A NICE ADDITION TO MY LIBRARY YOU JUST NEVER KNOW WHEN THIS SUBJECT WILL COME UP AND IT IS NICE TO HAVE A PLACE TO GO FOR IDEAS AND INFO.

Had this book while looking for things to do in the Cincinnati region. The book is actually a compiled list of venues that is typically found in tourist offices. The biggest shortcoming of this book is that it lacks a story about the city, its demographic, its life. It was easier to just drive around the city, find a cool looking cafe, stopping in, and finding information on a community bulletin board or from a local weekly community-oriented newspaper, and asking the coffee-goers on the whereabouts of cool things to check out and do.
