Customer Reviews

Yes, it is possible to eat gluten free on Thanksgiving, thanks to this wonderful book. It has all the recipes you will need for your Thanksgiving feast. From appetizers to dessert, this cookbook has you covered, including the Thanksgiving Turkey. Not in the mood for turkey for Thanksgiving, well that's okay because there is also a ham recipe. The recipes are simple yet elegant.

This will be my first Thanksgiving gluten free and I can't wait to try so many of these recipes! I enjoyed reading this cookbook and loved how simple it all sounds, and how "regular" all the ingredients are. Anyone looking for help this Thanksgiving, or just for dinner everyday should check this book out!

I've cooked a lot of gluten free turkeys and stuffing but this looks pretty tasty. The pear stuffing is a little different but I think it will be good. The book has good tips for cooking the turkey and brining. I think the best part is the planner, it tells you what to do a week before, etc.
