Matthew Lesko is America's leading authority on free (& almost free) information, expert advice, and money available from the federal government. Lesko is a contributing editor to Success magazine. He also airs a regular broadcast on National Public Radio's Morning Edition Program and ABC's "The Home Show." --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.

better to get a government reference book to start legal help.

This book is a great source of information. I have used it many times. Not all of it applies nor will it apply to my life, but when I've had an issue with businesses or ppl who you would think are untouchable, it tells you where to go to obtain help. It reinforces that everyone is accountable! Everyone should have this book in their collection!!!

the editorial was right, it gives you 1,000 resources you can contact.very little legal advice.
