The Essentials Of Privy Digging.

Synopsis

Eddie "The Bottleviking" Brater, a Cincinnati Ohio digger, shares his 20 years of hard core Privy Digging experience. In depth and captivating step by step guide for finding and digging outhouse pits. Explains why digging Privies is the last great American treasure hunt. Foolproof methods of how to get permission to dig big holes in peoples back yards, including a written example you can use word for word. How to build and use a probe, and advanced probing tips, tricks, and techniques that no Privy pit can hide from. Explains types of Privy pits, their construction, size, depth, and evaluating their structural integrity. How to dig them, including cutting and saving the sod, using tarps correctly, tool selection, and how to deal with rocks, bricks, roots, and wet pits. Recognizing signs of age, fill episodes, clay caps, and making decisions to continue or stop based on probability. Digging safely. Correct procedures, ground and pit fill composition and evaluation. How to keep from breaking the bottles and artifacts you are digging. How to refill the pit and make restoration to the yard. Research tips that will dramatically supercharge your pursuit. The politics of Privy Digging. Digging with partners, splitting up the finds, homeowner compensation, dealing with negative or opposing viewpoints, and being an ethical digger. How to share your hobby, and how to make sharing it work for you. Construction site digging. Urban salvage, digging vacant lots and houses, and digging safely in bad neighborhoods. Special chapter on female diggers. Precisely details the attitude needed for success in a Zen like manner. This is a Goldmine of information for both aspiring and seasoned diggers alike. Guaranteed to fast lane your experience and knock YEARS off your learning curve. Pays for itself the first time in the field. Hard hitting and insightful, lighthearted and humorous. The Bible of Privy Digging.
