Customer Reviews

Sooner or later, every weight-loss diet comes to rely on chicken as its go-to meat. Cheap, inoffensive, and ubiquitous, supermarket chicken offers the cook a blank culinary canvas to embellish in nearly limitless ways. Ever-popular chicken salads couple cold, diced breast with leafy greens and crunchy raw vegetables for textural appeal. Soup stocks yield similar pluses, but within a bowl of meat, vegetables, and steaming broth. Nondietering dinner guests won't feel deprived with this book's company fare such as chicken and ham cassoulet; chicken, shrimp, and kielbasa paella; or chicken shepherd's pie. To avoid monotony, the book appends a handful of turkey, duck, Cornish hen, and quail offerings. In addition to substantial and comprehensive nutritional breakdowns for every recipe, Weight Watchers members will find the organization's proprietary numerical index number to help more easily manage a day's calorie consumption and simultaneously ensure nutritionally balanced meals. --Mark Knoblauch

Great variety of chicken recipes, everything from American Comfort food to: Japanese, Chinese, Cajun, Greek, Thai, Mexican, Spanish, Cuban, Caribbean, Mediterranean, Italian inspired and more!! Soups, salads, appetizer, entrees, grilled, roasted, stir fries and more! All recipes have Weight Watchers 360 Points Plus values listed!

I love how the points plus values are included with every recipe. I'm a picky eater and am glad to find a cookbook with recipes that I like which uses the usual condiments that I already have in my cupboard or frig. I'd recommend this cookbook for the cook who likes to keep cooking simple.

If you don't already have the WW cookbook "Everyone Loves Chicken", you will like this. However, if you do already have the aforementioned book, you will find many of the recipes duplicated.

This book has so many awesome recipes in it and are all in the Weight Watcher guidelines. I couldn't resist purchasing this as I have a collection of cookbooks and love to find different ways to prepare chicken.

I bought this book for my wife and I. The meals that we have tried are great.

I have cooked many of the dishes that are in the book. They were real easy and quite delicious. I would recommend this cookbook to all. Enjoy.

I am a "chickenaholic". That is one of my favorite foods. Anyway this book has many good recipes. I made the Bacon Cheddar Turkey burgers last week. I did it a little different. I browned both sides and then finished them in the oven for about 8 minutes. They were the juiciest burgers ever. I also enjoyed the chicken sausage/beans. Yummy. The reason for the 4 stars is because some of them are pretty involved and need lots of ingredients. Other than that this is a cook book that I will use often.

I love this book! Trying to eat healthy AND not being able to eat fish, I wanted more recipes with chicken. It also has a section called "Other Birds" and gives some other fowl recipes for like duck, turkey etc. The book is well made, sturdy and heavy - so a good book stand would help when using in the kitchen.
