Collecting Oil Cans (Schiffer Book For Collectors)

Synopsis

At last, the most complete book devoted exclusively to oil cans, containing over 750 color photographs of cans spanning 120 years, and over 90 brands. The cans are presented alphabetically by company, and a detailed description and estimated value are included for each. Helpful information for collectors includes methods different oil companies used to date their cans, how to grade the condition of a can, collector resources, and a list of can manufacturers. This excellent guide is a must for the serious gas station collector, and a wonderful introduction for the beginner.

Customer Reviews

W. Clark Miller and Sabra Sonewald live in Ohio and are devoted collectors of gas station antiques. Their first book, *Collecting Sohio: "Bring Your Car Up to Standard", is also available from Schiffer.

cost too high for what I received

Given as a gift. Very helpful.

A good base line for the collector. Have enjoyed looking up the cans I have plus the ones I want.

This is an awesome book for any body who likes collecting oil cans. I just started collecting and found the book very helpful.

Nice book.

Great pics. Wish was bigger but still a deal.

received my book to day and the cover was creased not in the best shape for being a new book.

Not really happy but there is not time to return and get by christmas.
