Synopsis

The wide-open plains of the Dakota Territory form the setting for the lives and loves of four inspiring woman making their way in the New World. This captivating volume combines three of bestselling author Lauraine Snelling's novels under one cover, along with a bonus novella. Norwegian Nora Johanson welcomes the Dakota Dawn expecting to marry Hans, a prosperous farmer. But when the New World's promises turn into painful uncertainties, Nora discovers God's plan is bigger than her grandest dreams. Armed with a water-stained letter, a faded photograph, and a ticket from Norway to America, Clara Johnson journeys to Soldall ready to fall into the arms of her Dakota Dreams. But who she meets instead is a rough and rugged blacksmith named Dag Weinlander. Rebekka Stenesrude has poured her life into her students, only to see her beloved school burned to the ground. Jude Weinlander arrives with the job of rebuilding the fire-ravaged school, but before the Dakota Dusk they realize their main interest could be in building a future together. Since childhood, Mary Moen and Will Dunfrey have been best friends, but now the war to end all wars - World War I - brings news that Will is missing in action. Two years pass and another man's marriage proposal awaits Mary's decision. Who is her Dakota Destiny? Journey with these courageous women as they make their homes in the Dakota plains - and allow God to fulfill the desires of their hearts in unexpected ways.

I purchased this cause I was in the last book of this Trilogy, and left it at an automotive store. I was so bummed. Went to the library where I found out no library's in the Denver Metro Area had it. Bummed again. So I found this and purchased it. Then I got the old one back, so I donated it the local library. They were THRILLED!

The story of four Norweigan women, two that have just come over and two that were raised in Dakota territory. Each finds love in a surprising yet different way. I really enjoyed the format of 4 short stories as opposed to one long one. I've read some books recently that seemed to drag on. This did not. They tie in together nicely and the endings were sometimes very surprising. I really liked the book. All four stories were believable and the women in them, inspiring.

I have read all of Lauraine Snelling's Red River of the North series and extended series twice. I absolutely loved all of them and learned so much about life during that period of time. I loved the active faith of each of the characters and the reality of Christ in their lives. I really liked the Dakota series, but just not as much as the previous series.

I have read so many of Lauraine Snelling books and loved them so I knew I was safe ordering this one. I was not disappointed with this book. I love books of this era . I lived in N.D. for a number of years when I was young so I enjoy reading books about this area of the country. The pioneering spirit of the people in this tough environment was amazing and inspiring.

Lauraine Snelling's books are ALL spectacular. This one, like all of hers, was a page turner. I loved it!
