Customer Reviews

Good training edition for beginning classical piano players, with a year or more experience. Music is graded by difficulty and audio CD allows comparison to professional players.

This book has a nice selection of Mozart's piano pieces. I was especially glad that it included Sonata No. 15 K 545. The CD is so helpful to get the rhythm right and to know the correct speed. The book is an 'introduction' but I wouldn't call these pieces easy. I would say that an immediate player would enjoy them more than a beginner. A few might be at the advanced beginner level.

Alfred Masterwork Edition with Willard A. Palmer as editor proves an excellent learning resource for the piano student. As a piano teacher, I feel assured that my students will receive the good basic foundation they need from this W.A. Mozart An Introduction To His Keyboard Works. I appreciate 's offering such fine piano music editions.

I didn't get a cd with this book even though it says so. I contacted and a replacement with CD was shipped. Excellent book for a starting pianist with a challenge to play like it's played on CD. Also, never turned me down.
