Oklahoma Legal Guide To Long-Term Care

Synopsis

The Oklahoma Legal Guide To Long-Term Care answers important legal questions about long-term care, including: - What is long-term care? - How can I get the care I need at home? - What are my rights? - Can I qualify for financial assistance? - How do I find a facility that is right for me? - What does all this paperwork mean? - How can I ensure the highest quality of care? - What can I do to plan for the future? In a straightforward, easy-to-understand way, the Oklahoma Legal Guide To Long-Term Care answers these and other questions to help seniors, caregivers, and professionals choose a provider, find ways to pay for needed care, and make sure individuals receive all the services to which they are entitled.

Catheryn Koss is the founder and former Executive Director of the Senior Law Resource Center. While working at the SLRC, Catheryn wrote numerous publications and articles on long-term care, diminished capacity, and other elder law issues. She also represented clients in matters involving estate and incapacity planning, guardianship, and Medicaid. Catheryn has taught Elder Law and Wills, Trusts & Estates as an adjunct professor at Oklahoma City University School of Law. As an adjunct professor, she has also taught Death, Dying & Bereavement at Oklahoma City Community College. Catheryn earned her law degree from Oklahoma City University in 2005. She has a B.A. in Anthropology from Smith College and a Master's degree in Adult Education-Gerontology from the University of Central Oklahoma. After completing this guide, Catheryn began pursuing a Ph.D. in Gerontology at the University of Kansas in Lawrence.

Bought this to read and pass on to parents, and I was happy with the info provided and the organization. Author did say it was not necessary to read cover to cover, but I did since I was planning to give the book away, and it was just fine.

This great book answered so many of my questions all under one cover. Older people who will be needing long term care (perhaps all of us at some time) can find good answers here.

This is a well researched and clearly written single source library of useful and usable tools, with contact data and assessments of value.
