Arabella Park: Season 1

Synopsis

Everyone knows that losing friends is a natural part of the high school experience. It's all a game of musical chairs, really. Yet, what happens when a friend doesn't intentionally "go ghost" but is abruptly taken away? Kameron, Grayson, Mikey, Yasmin, and Jenna have been thick as thieves since childhood. Rightfully so—they make up the American minority in the German twin city of Arabella Park. When one of the five suddenly turns up missing, the remaining friends must find a way to bring her back while keeping up the facade of leading ordinary small town lives. As they search for their missing friend, they discover things about themselves and one another that will catapult them into an explosive climax and the ultimate revelation of who done it. A multi-faceted mystery, Arabella Park brings to life what it means to endure the most frightful, profound time of one's life—the teenage years—while being stretched to the limits of what it means to be an adult, even a hero.
