If this book does not convince you that Kuala Lumpur is a must on your bucket list non will! I loved the 25 secrets that the author shares in detail with the reader and a great touch to it by the added link that takes you straight to the place to get even more information. My favorite is number 17 Shop and eat at Petaling Market, it is a very long street with a glass roof, it seems that you will be able to shop till you drop day and night. What makes it even more convenient is that are delicious food as well!

When I was younger I made a bucket list, and one of the items on my list is visiting Malaysia. We had been learning about it in school and I was fascinated; the culture, the environment, the people. Obviously a lot has changed since then and that means that the place is much better to visit now. The way the author has written this book is amazing because it takes the form of a list of things to do. I guess it's a coincidence that this trip is a part of a list. All in all I'm still impressed with Kuala Lumpur and I should really start planning that trip.

I had just visited this place with my friends. It was so fun and memorable. I must say this book helped us so much. All the details from this book was informative and helpful, and we also saved lots of money. This book has provided vivid information of Kuala Lumpur and its different places with many pictures. I found that visiting like local people is more fun than traveling like visitors. We had made friend over there and had barbecue party as well. The book was very helpful with good detail on many interesting places and secrets. Recommended.

Whenever I hear Kuala Lumpur I always think about the Petronas Tower. I think that's the only thing I know about it before I read this book. And after reading this book I discovered lots of things about Kuala Lumpur. The Kuala Lumpur Bird Park and Street foods are some of them. I think it is a nice tourist place worth visiting in the future.
