Are We There Yet?

Synopsis

Caldecott Medalist Dan Santat takes readers on the road trip of a lifetime! "Are we there yet?" Every parent has heard this classic kid question on a long car ride--and after reading this astonishingly inventive new book (that even turns upside down for several pages!), you'll never look at being bored the same way again. Let's face it: everyone knows that car rides can be boring. And when things get boring, time slows down. In this book, a boy feels time slowing down so much that it starts going backward--into the time of pirates! Of princesses! Of dinosaurs! The boy was just trying to get to his grandmother's birthday party, but instead he's traveling through Ancient Egypt and rubbing shoulders with Ben Franklin. When time flies, who knows where--or when--he'll end up.

Customer Reviews

Praise for Are We There Yet? "The energy of his riotous story...gives it a laser focus. It's a remarkable feat--a turbocharged adventure that's also a meditation on the relative nature of time." Publishers Weekly, starred review "Employing both comic-book-style panels and full-bleed spreads, the mixed-media illustrations are full of humor, and the changes in point of view keep the telling dynamic and engaging.... A multilayered, modern-day parable reminding readers there's no greater gift than the present." Kirkus, starred review
