Young Romance 2

Synopsis

The sequel to the Eisner Award-nominated Simon & Kirby collection Young Romance. From tears to soda fountains, from mobsters to pretty ingénues in freshly pressed dresses, the stories in of love and betrayal herein will prompt you to grab a tissue box or swoon in delight. Joe Simon and Jack Kirby's sensational romance comics continue in this sequel to 2012's acclaimed Young Romance. This volume covers 1947 through 1949, and includes stories about women from all walks of life • from French widows recently released prisoners. Simon and Kirby invented the romance comics genre and explored all the flirtations, dalliances, and passions of the young men and women who populated their stories. Get swept away by the sheer delirium that these pages induced so long ago. These comics have been meticulously restored in order to produce one of the most striking and faithful reproductions of 1940s. Full-color illustrations throughout

“The Simon & Kirby romance stories... were often a notch above. ... Honestly, this is some pretty wacked-out stuff sometimes, but it never fails to entertain -- Simon & Kirby knew their business.” - Andrew A. Smith, Metroland Media

Jack Kirby (1917-1994) is one of the unqualified giants in American comic book history. His most famous co-creation, Captain America, is in a major motion picture film franchise from Marvel Studios. Joe Simon (1913-) is one of the unqualified giants in American comic book history. His most famous co-creation, Captain America, is in a major motion picture film franchise from Marvel Studios.

Reminds of the days when we would read these comic books as teenagers. I settled in and read the stories and became a teenager again. I really enjoyed it. I believe all the stories were written by men, and they were written a long time ago which makes the characters sometimes laughable to be reading about in the year 2014. I have the first book and am hoping they do a third one!

Great Kirby romances here. If you haven't read these stories, you don't know what the genre can be.

I read it - and enjoyed every story in it thoroughly! Now I wish the publishers good luck on getting the third book (second sequel) out so we can enjoy assorted comic magazine story reprints!!

A great chance to enjoy these rare, out of print romance stories. Digitally remastered to be better than the original comics and the great storytelling and art of the legendary Simon and Kirby Studio.

A great edition of terrific stories by one of the greatest comic producing teams of all time. A totally entertaining read.

Great Stuff
