Hannah Beth Miller has been enjoying her Rumspringa, even though the Englisher world is sometimes a little scary. She likes the feeling of excitement and freedom, and the strange customs of her Englisher friends. And though she knows joining the outside world would mean leaving her home forever, Hannah Beth cannot help but wonder what that life would be like. So when she meets Mordecai Lapp, Hannah Beth is pleased to find another person to share her new discoveries with. He is also on his Rumspringa, uncommitted to the church, and curious about the outside world. But when her taste for adventure brings them closer to danger than expected, Hannah Beth has to make a choice. But which adventure will she choose?
