In my opinion many people that read bible, go to church, pray like robots. Not in a bad way, but they do that just because they have to, it's almost like a habit. This book explains deeper things about christianity, prayers and most importantly answers question "why?". Why you need to pray? Why you need to understand bible and christianity? What is a purpose of a prayer? Good read for those of you that want to understand why you do things that you do.

Being a Christian can easily be said than done. A lot is claiming that they are Christian and living a life like one but sometimes you cannot deny the fact that we also go astray. A powerful and refreshing read! This book highlights what prayer is and how it is to be done in a biblical perspective. It teaches you how to pray in line to the promises of God revealed in His words, the Bible. It also discussed Christianity as not mere religious rituals but more of a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, the Savior and only mediator between God and man. The book considers essence of Christianity, it says that "because of our sinful nature and all of us being sinners, there is nothing we can do and no amount of good works can ever lease God enough for us to be saved inherit eternal life." The book tells us about the Bible, about its chapters and its history. But most of all the book tell us about prayer. What prayer is, how we should pray, why we should pray everyday.
