I have wanted to visit Munich for the longest time but I find the language and culture daunting to a novice traveler such as myself. Glad to have downloaded this book that's jam-packed with the information I need. The accommodations, the places to visit, the dining spots, and even the addresses and telephone numbers are included. The friendly tone of writing by the author made this book a joy to read. I will surely take this book with me when I get the chance to visit Munich.

As I'm just in the process of arranging a trip to Germany I was delighted to find two of these travel guides to different cities while they were free and grabbed them quick! I got this one (Munich) and the Berlin one too and while they share much of the same basic travel information and guidelines, they each also have fabulous inside information about their chosen destination. The suggested five day itineraries look like they'll be particularly useful for me - though I may well swap a few things around. I like that these books are concise but give you plenty of options of different places to stay, eat and visit during your trip that will suit all budgets and tastes so I definitely recommend them

I always love reading travel books and this is why I love reading them. It is not only informative but very educational as well. I may not be travelling soon but it is good to know a thing or two about a certain place. This is a good resource for breaking down what to do, how to do it, where to stay, planning itineraries, how to get around, what to be careful of, everything. If you want to visit Munich, I recommend you buy this book first!

Wow what a marvelous travel guide to get information about the beautiful city of Germany. I was planning for a trip for Europe and also in search of the place where to go. Then I got this guide which helps me to visit the right place. Munich has a rich cultural history and also recognized worldwide and this book helps you from getting visa to getting information about places, flights, hotels etc.

Though I haven't planned a vacation yet bound for Germany I still got this book because I have always been fascinated with what Munich can offer to tourists and would be tourist like me. The book gives the reader an overview of Munich's History and also provided the reader insider tips that would make their travel more relaxing and enjoyable. After reading, I found out that Munich has a lot more to offer to it's tourist compared to what I have known already, and the book gives it a full picture of what tourists can enjoy. Nice one!

You will fall in love with Munich. The Author has shown ten best parts which you should never miss if you are going or planning to visit Munich. Well After reading this book, i may also visit someday this place. If you are trying to find fun things to do with the family this book is loaded with everything you need. The sites explored have great historical value and are easy to get to with public transportation.

I pick this book for the reason that my friend is in Munich, Germany. Me and my husband plans to visit her. This is an incredible book to be a guide. I love to share this to my husband and for sure he will love this guide. It's everything we need.

I found this as really valuable guide. I am planning the trip with my friends to the Germany and one stop will be Munich. I appreciate very well described all the necessary details, that could be faced during visiting this beautiful city. Thanks!
