I'm giving this 5 stars because it was helpful in preparing for my recent trip to southern Germany. It is not a very easy book to read, and I found myself reading it over again a few times to figure stuff out. Its difficult to connect the places on the map to the descriptions, but it has a lot of information and hidden gems. The restaurant recommendations were not that good. We did better with Trip Adviser and Google. If you have time to decipher this book, it is packed full of helpful stuff. We had an amazing trip.

Many pages impossible to read due to misprinting. Those that I could read were unhelpful. Whoever wrote this doesn't seem to like Bavaria or the Black Forest much.

Great book. Was very useful during our European trip
