

The book was found

The Study Of Evangelism: Exploring A Missional Practice Of The Church

Synopsis

Christians and communities of faith today are rediscovering evangelism as an essential aspect of the church's mission. Many of the resulting books in the marketplace, however, have a hands-on orientation, often lacking serious theological engagement and reflection. Bucking that how-to trend, The Study of Evangelism offers thirty groundbreaking essays that plumb the depths of the biblical and theological heritage of the church with reference to evangelistic practice. Helpfully organized into six categories, these broad, diverse writings lay a solid scholarly foundation for meaningful dialogue about the church's practice of evangelism.

Book Information

Paperback: 488 pages

Publisher: Eerdmans (February 13, 2008)

Language: English

ISBN-10: 0802803911

ISBN-13: 978-0802803917

Product Dimensions: 6.3 x 1 x 9.2 inches

Shipping Weight: 1.5 pounds (View shipping rates and policies)

Average Customer Review: 4.3 out of 5 stars 12 customer reviews

Best Sellers Rank: #82,984 in Books (See Top 100 in Books) #151 in Books > Christian Books & Bibles > Ministry & Evangelism > Evangelism #16199 in Books > Religion & Spirituality

Customer Reviews

Leonard Sweet • Drew University, George Fox University, www.sermons.com "The wait has been worth it. Finally we have a collection of essays on evangelism to treasure that will only appreciate in value. The tone of the editors and the texture of their selections make this a book that will be invaluable for years to come." Douglas McConnell • Fuller Theological Seminary "In The Study of Evangelism Paul Chilcote and Lacey Warner bring together the writings of outstanding international scholars who have also engaged in evangelism through the church. This groundbreaking volume crosses the barriers of tradition and culture to engage in topics that cannot be ignored if the church is to truly be missional today. It is refreshing to have such a diverse range of issues and perspectives in a single volume. True to their goal, the authors combine the best of missiology and theological insights for serious students of evangelism." Interpretation "This book is especially welcome. There are too few texts that study the biblical and theological roots of evangelism. This work goes to the head of the short list."

Paul W. Chicolte is professor of historical theology and Wesleyan studies at Ashland Theological Seminary, Ohio. Lacey C. Warner is executive vice dean and associate professor of the practice of evangelism and Methodist studies at Duke Divinity School, North Carolina.

Several articles were worthwhile, but many were out of date having been written in the 1980s even though the book was published in 2008. The world of missions is rapidly evolving at home and abroad, but this book leaves me wanting for relevant, timely reflections on the world today. There are other articles that are simply lacking such as the one about women which is just a few short pages and is more of a historical review than a scholarly engagement. If you're looking for a lively and relevant engagement of the theology and current issues of evangelism and mission, I'd recommend looking elsewhere.

I have this book for the main text in my missions and evangelism class and it has really opened my eyes to the view of evangelism in America from the generation before me and my generation now. It covers a variety of topics including women in ministry, evangelism in the present day church, an exegesis of the Great Commission and more. I would definitely recommend it to an up and coming minister, a ministry student, or anyone wanting to learn more about evangelism under the "greater umbrella of missions" in a Christian life.

If you are an academic it would be interesting I imagine. I found it boring and a grind to get through. If you are an Evangelical do not waste your money.

Thank you.

Awesome text, clear and to the point.

One of the best books on Evangelism I've ever come across—highly recommended.

I love this because it has so many different contributors in it. It really gave good perspectives for evangelism in a world that hates evangelism.

This book is a wonderful resource for anyone, student, pastor or laity, who wishes to extend the faith as a welcome to Christ.

Download to continue reading...

The Study of Evangelism: Exploring a Missional Practice of the Church
The Missional Church in Perspective: Mapping Trends and Shaping the Conversation (The Missional Network)
The Church as Movement: Starting and Sustaining Missional-Incarnational Communities
Exponential: How You and Your Friends Can Start a Missional Church Movement (Exponential Series)
A Light to the Nations: The Missional Church and the Biblical Story
Church Unique: How Missional Leaders Cast Vision, Capture Culture, and Create Movement
The Missional Leader: Equipping Your Church to Reach a Changing World
Church Unique: How Missional Leaders Cast Vision, Capture Culture, and Create Movement (Jossey-Bass Leadership Network Series)
Missional Renaissance: Changing the Scorecard for the Church (Jossey-Bass Leadership Network Series)
Bible: Master the Prayers: Understand Christianity, Judaism, the Old & New Testament, Bible Verses & Jesus Christ (Bible Study, Gospel, Christianity, Evangelism, ... Religion, Spirituality, Christ, Jesus, God)
Evangelism after Christendom: The Theology and Practice of Christian Witness
Welcome to the Church Year: An Introduction to the Seasons of the Episcopal Church (Welcome to the Episcopal Church)
Constitutional Theology: Notes on the Book of Church Order of the Reformed Church in America (Historical Series of the Reformed Church in America)
Growing an Engaged Church: How to Stop "Doing Church" and Start Being the Church Again
Who Runs the Church?: 4 Views on Church Government (Counterpoints: Church Life)
Missional Motherhood: The Everyday Ministry of Motherhood in the Grand Plan of God
Planting Missional Churches: Your Guide to Starting Churches that Multiply Surprise the World: The Five Habits of Highly Missional People
Sticky Faith Service Guide: Moving Students from Mission Trips to Missional Living
A Generous Orthodoxy: Why I am a missional, evangelical, post/protestant, liberal/conservative, mystical/poetic, biblical, charismatic/contemplative, ... emergent, unfinished Christian (emergentYS)

Contact Us

DMCA

Privacy

FAQ & Help