Savannah, Georgia: A Photographic Portrait

Synopsis

Founded in 1733, Savannah, Georgia is rich in history, charm, and beauty. Its varied architecture, impeccable restaurants, and friendly folks are what lures in the curious visitor and keeps them coming back year after year. Also known as The Hostess City, Savannah begs to be discovered and experienced, from the first step taken inside the historic district, to the first sight of live oak trees draped in Spanish moss, to the first encounter with someone saying y'all, to the first taste of a praline from a River Street candy store. Savannah boasts natural and historic aesthetics, southern accents, and genuine hospitality. It remains one of the most desirable locations to visit in America, and there's no wonder why.

Carrie L. Kellogg was born and raised in Linton, Indiana and graduated with a degree in Laboratory Technology. She worked in the medical field for over 18 years. Her love of photography started in high school where she took classes from the local portrait photographer and did a lot of landscape work of rural Indiana. Carrie has her own photography gallery in Savannah's City Market area and is a partner in Gallery 209 on East River Street. She is a member of the Savannah Art Association, The Landings Art, and the Telfair Museum.

Beautiful book with awesome pictures of Savannah. A pictorial of my trip to Savannah! Highly recommend this book to anyone who is curious about or is already in love with Savannah Georgia!

My mother in law enjoyed this book on Savannah. One of her favorite places to visit Beautiful photos! Savannah is one of my favorite places. This book makes me feel like I'm there again!

Bought a copy and loved it so much bought another for a gift.

very nice book

I lived in Savannah for a short while during the early 70's. My youngest daughter and her husband were married in Forsythe Park in Savannah. Their son loves Savannah. This book is filled with all of the wonderful places that were visited by all of us. It depicts the beauty that only Savannah has to offer. A wonderful book. I love it.

This is a truly wonderful book about Savannah! In this book I see everything that I want to see in Savannah. The squares, Forsyth Park, River Street, and historical neighborhoods are all beautiful. Savannah for me is like another world. It is beautiful and historic. If you want to see beauty, enchantment, and history in the south this book is a must have. It is a treasure!

nice pictures with concise explanations; a good memento of my visit to Savannah.
